OLD BUSINESS:

- A.) Scholarship Committee – Susan stated that this is the busiest month for scholarships and There were 70 to 80 Scholarship applications. The Nash Scholarship is for one Redwood student in the amount of $4000. There were two applicants that were both deserving of and they were twin girls. Susan call Mr. Nash and asked if they would be able to split it and he stated no that he would give an additional $4,000 so both students would have one. It was stated that Mr. Nash has been very generous in the past and he had done this before.

(we have already received the additional funds) Mr. Nash will be giving out the Nash Scholarships this year. There was not a viable application from Tulare Western for the music scholarship but had two outstanding ones from Mt. Whitney and Mr. Salierno stated to go ahead and present both Mt. Whitney students with the Provident-Salierno scholarships. Susan has typed all the letters and put together all the packages for the administrative department. Dru inquired about the vocational scholarship applications that were not given scholarships and asked that they would be forwarded to her to be reviewed for their scholarship program. This year's recipients are as follows;
